NEWSLETTER

Welcome

Dear team,

This newsletter was designed to strengthen our communication and team unity by providing a space to share and document our achievements. While important announcements will be sent separately, this will be our platform to keep us all informed and to recognize what we have done as a team over time.

In this first issue, we highlight our August 2023 AM Best upgrade and review the first seven months of the year with a look at our offices, leadership team, key events and other milestones.

We are proud of our team on this journey and look forward to achieving greater success together as we celebrate our 17th Anniversary!

Get to Know Our Offices

Barbados

Our new office in Barbados emphasizes our commitment to strengthening our brand presence and enhancing proximity to regulatory bodies like the FSC. This strategic move ensures compliance with Economic Substance laws, underscoring our dedication to operational transparency and regulatory requirements. By establishing a local presence, we aim to foster closer relationships with stakeholders and provide tailored support to meet regional needs effectively.

Miami

The Miami office was under renovation and was completed in February 2024. A space that has supported multiple meetings during visits with banks, clients and reinsurance events. Esteban Madero, our CCO, will soon be relocating to the Miami office in a business development role. This new strategy will allow us to engage closely with the community, build key relationships and attract new business.

My role as COO fulfils a cross-functional role of working with the Underwriting and Operations department (Technical Accounts, Claims, Collections) and alongside the Compliance, IT, Finance, Business Development and Marketing teams to ensure the implementation and execution of strategic goals in the daily business operations.

My role as CCO at Active Re is to be responsible for global business development, identifying new opportunities across all lines of business. I focus on positioning and increasing the visibility of the Active Re brand worldwide, strengthening our relationships with existing business partners, and cultivating new ones. My goal is to establish Active Re as a significant reinsurance player in our target markets.

My responsibility as a Head of Global Retrocession is leading Active Re's retrocession efforts keeping our capital safe. Capital allows us to grow & if it is reduced because of a loss, then we are weaker. Imagine the company is a human body, then capital is the bones, keeping us strong.

My main role as a Head of Global & Surety Underwriting is to ensure the technical quality of our Credit and Surety subscriptions, as well as to guarantee coherence and strategic alignment in our decisions across various committees. Additionally, like each of us, another role is to serve as an ambassador for Active Re in external meetings and conferences.

As a Head of Personal Lines in Active Re, I'm leading the efforts to evaluate and underwrite all business related to Life and Personal Accidents, providing the best support to our clients while meeting our profitability and risk appetite standards.

As a Reinsurance Underwriting Manager, my responsibility is Creating customer confidence, offering quick replies, selecting the accounts and risks we consider well rated and less exposed. These are the main objectives of our daily work. We also receive proposals every day and our task is to review the information, analyze conditions, make a counteroffer or accept a portion of the account as offered, will produce premium income for us.

I lead Active Re's Facultative Overseas team, managing Property and Engineering classes of business across MENA, Europe, and Asia. My responsibilities include business development, underwriting policy creation, and representing our interests at international conferences. With an economics degree and nearly 30 years in insurance, I bring extensive expertise across various business classes.

As a Head of Overseas Treaty Business Underwriting the function is to be responsible of the management of Treaty reinsurance agreements with international clients. The primary role is to evaluate and assess risks associated with these agreements, negotiate terms, and set pricing strategies that align with the company's risk appetite and financial goals.

Market Insights

Let's align! What message do we say to the Market?

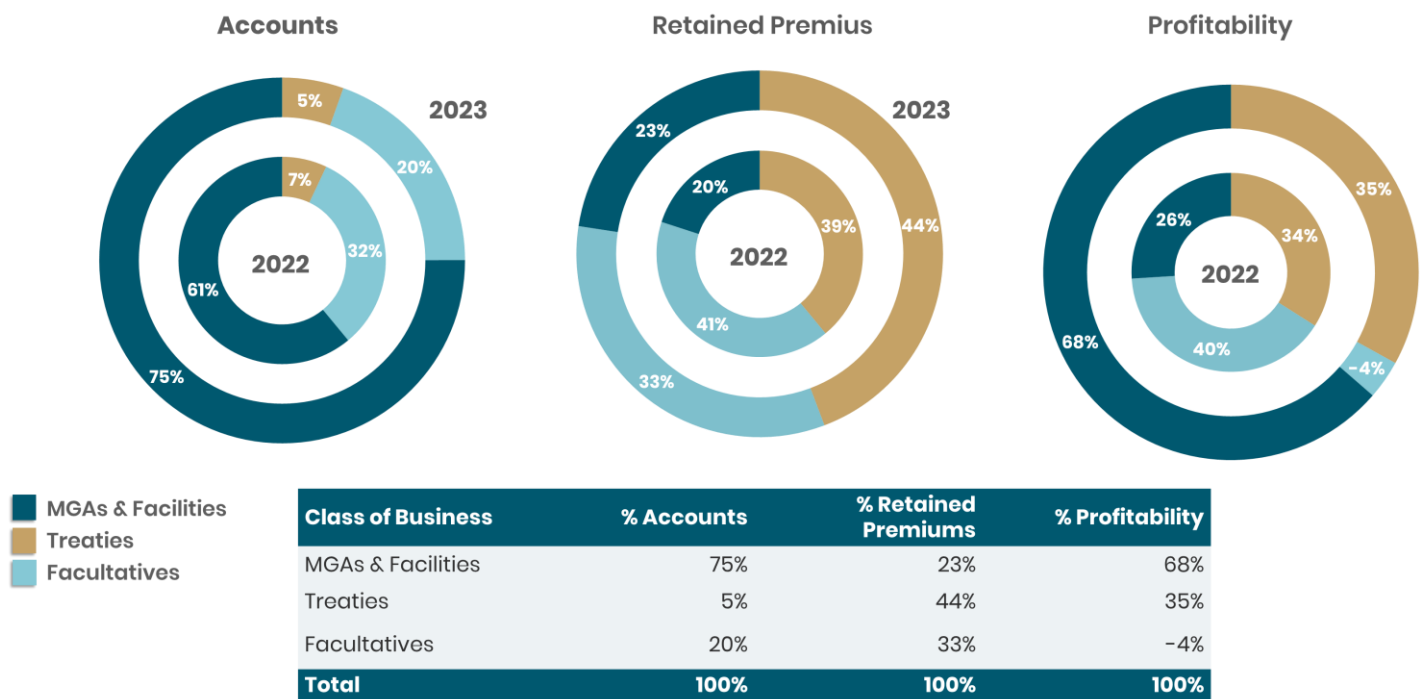

Active Re began as a reinsurer of Group Life & Credit Affinity Business & over the last 17 years, it has seen strong growth & has moved from a regional mono-line carrier to a global multi-line reinsurer. Currently, the Active Re team manages multiple MGAs, a global Facultative & a growing reinsurance Treaties portfolio.

Our 2024 results have continued to outperform expectations, and in August 2023 AM Best upgraded Active to A (excellent). The Equity in the company has more than doubled to $87.6M, and it is projected to surpass $100M by 2025, affording itself many more opportunities.

How do we do Business?

We work with MGAs & Facilities and use both Treaties and Facultative to meet diverse needs. The following charts detail 2023 year's distribution, as outlined in the AM Best presentation.
